And for 2016, the Fiat 500 will continue to deliver on these attributes by introducing new features and exterior paint colours to enhance the customer's driving experience and personalization options.

For 2016, the Fiat 500 lineup features the Uconnect® 5.0 multimedia centre with a 5-inch touchscreen that enables hands-free calling via Bluetooth-equipped phones, as well as voice-command control of AM/FM, and optional SiriusXM satellite radio with one-year subscription and navigation system. New exterior paint colours for 2016 are Spitfire Orange, Grigio Cenre (light grey), Rhino (dark grey) and Latte Menta (light green). Celeste Blu (light blue), previously only available on the Fiat 500 1957 Edition, is now available throughout the Fiat 500 lineup. Fiat 500 Turbo delivers more performance to the lineup

For the driving enthusiast who wants a Fiat 500 Sport with more power and performance, the 2016 Fiat 500 Turbo answers the call with a 135-horsepower (hp) 1.4-litre MultiAir® Turbo engine, dynamic styling, sport-tuned suspension, track-proven brakes and unique sport-styled interior.

The Fiat 500 Turbo features a single turbocharger, twin intercoolers and sport-tuned exhaust to deliver 34 per cent more power (135 vs. 101 hp) and 53 per cent more torque (150 vs. 98 lb.-ft.) compared with the Fiat 500's naturally aspirated 1.4-litre MultiAir engine. In addition, a track-proven 5-speed manual transmission offers an intermediate shaft with equal-length half shafts to mitigate torque steer. The Fiat 500 Turbo is also available with an optional 6-speed automatic transmission.

The 500 Turbo offers sport-tuned spring rates, shock tuning and steering calibration, along with a unique lower-control arm for spirited handling.

For a more aggressive appearance, the Fiat 500 Turbo features an aggressively styled front fascia, pushed 6.9 cm (2.7 in) forward of the Cinquecento's signature "whiskers and logo" face, to accommodate and cool the 1.4-litre MultiAir Turbo engine.

Bolder side skirts and unique 16-inch aluminum wheels with Nero painted pockets enhance its iconic Cinquecento shape. At the rear, a liftgate-mounted spoiler extends the roofline, while a black-accented rear diffuser optimizes airflow. For a bolder look, Nero headlamp and tail lamp bezels replace chromed units, while a high-performance brake system features brake calipers lacquered in Rosso paint.

Inside, the Fiat 500 Turbo features sport-styled seating, performance-designed leather-wrapped shift knob and steering wheel accented with Argento (silver) stitching and Grigio/Nero (grey/black) seating and interior environment. For an even more upscale look, heated leather seating in Nero/Nero (black/black) or vivid Rosso/Nero (red/black) is available. The standard 7-inch colour customizable in-cluster display centre allows drivers to easily monitor information.

The 6-speed automatic transmission with driver-selectable gear changes is also available, providing smooth shifting and excellent fuel economy. With the 6-speed automatic transmission, the driver can also select Sport mode on the instrument panel for a more aggressive shift schedule and a unique throttle map for improved engine responsiveness.

FIAT’s successful small car formula worked then and still works now

Like the original Cinquecento, the 2016 Fiat 500 and 500c showcase the brand’s ingenuity to build world-class small cars that ignite a spirit of the times through simple design, beautiful craftsmanship and timeless value. As a result, the Fiat 500 has continued to surprise and delight customers worldwide for more than 50 years.

Satisfying the individual mobility need for Italians and other Europeans after the Second World War, the original FIAT “Nuova” 500 became a catalyst in 1957 for the country of the “poor but beautiful” to be not quite as poor. With almost 4 million examples produced between 1957 and 1975, the small and efficient Fiat 500 succeeded in providing an affordable, comfortable and reliable transportation solution while helping to ignite Italy’s post-war economic recovery.

More than 50 years later, and thanks to its stylistic and modern technological features, the modern Fiat 500 represents the spark of another milestone along the lasting process of expansion. And this is where its history started again.

Reminiscent of the original Cinquecento, the 2016 Fiat 500 builds on the vehicle’s global popularity. Since its initial launch in 2007, more than 1 million Fiat 500 vehicles have been sold in more than 110 countries around the world. The model’s unquestionable popularity is the result of the Fiat 500’s great ability to deliver unmatched personalization options with advanced solutions in terms of quality, engine performance and passenger comfort. In addition to success on the sales front, the Fiat 500 has earned more than 80 international awards.

The 2016 Fiat 500 and 500c are backed by a 5 year / 100,000 km fully transferable Powertrain Limited Warranty. Basic Warranty coverage is 3 years / 60,000 km.
